

FHS BAND BOOSTERS

Meeting Minutes

January 10, 2011

In attendance: Joel Galway, Doris Harlow, Shannon Dingus, Marie Tsuda, Linda Hough, Jessie Hovatter, Ken Hovatter, Dianne Morrival, Stephen McCarthy, Herschel Holiday, and Diane Hill.

Opening: Meeting was called to order by the new president, Doris Harlow. There was a review and approval of the December minutes Ken Hovatter so moved and Jessie Hovatter seconded.

Treasurer's Report:

Ken Hovatter presented the treasurer's report on behalf of Chris Harlow who was ill. Ken presented November and December Reports. Marie Tsuda moved to approve the November and December reports and Jessie Hovatter seconded the motion.

Joel Galway Report:

Joel Galway reported that the first competition for Winter Guard was coming up on Jan. 29th. He also reported that there is a Jazz Festival on that day as well that the jazz band is competing in. The festival will be held at Woodgrove H.S.

Freedom High School is hosting the District Band for Middle and High Schools on Feb. 3rd-Feb. 5th. We will need volunteers to help sell concessions and prepare food for the directors.

The Concert Band and the Wind Symphony will be attending District Festival on March 4th and 5th. Mr. Galway will need 4-5 chaperones for the Concert Band and 6 chaperones for the Wind Ensemble.

Mr. Galway has invited instructors into the classroom to work individually with the flutes, brass, percussion, and clarinets.

Jessie Hovatter reported that we are currently looking for a new rental trucking company to rent from to help haul the Drumline equipment.

Old Business:

Jessie Hovatter presented the Fundraising Report. She reported that we doubled the profit sales on the Poinsettias.

New Business:

Dianne Morrical announced that there are currently 76 people registered for the Spring Trip. There was discussion about student's funds. Student's funds will only be used to pay for band fees not used for "fun" money.

Jessie Hovatter announced the new Fundraising opportunity with the use of "Yip Deals". Stephen McCarthy explained about the process and that we will have a "live" kick off at the end of January. We will also have another mattress fundraiser in February.

Doris Harlow discussed that a current goal for the Band Boosters is to better the website, build it to accept direct funds, and be a good source of information for parents and students. Doris would also like for the Boosters to offer a Band Scholarship.

Closing:

There was a motion made by Dianne Morrical to adjourn the meeting and Jessie Hovatter seconded the motion.

The next meeting of the Band Boosters will be held on Monday, February 7th at 7pm in the Band Room. All Band Parents are invited to attend.

Respectfully submitted by Shannon Dingus, secretary.
