

Freedom Band Boosters

November Minutes

November 11, 2013

In Attendance: Shannon Dingus, Susan Bean, Trace Jenkins, Toni Ballard, Hershel Holiday, Scott Philben, Nancy Daleuski, Mr. Brummond, and Joel Galway.

Opening: Shannon Dingus, Booster President, congratulated the Spirit of Freedom for their award winning show at the National Championships in New Jersey.

The Lunsford 8th grade recruitment afternoon went well when the kids traveled with the band to a competition. A 2nd recruiting invite will include the 8th grade band to experience first hand FHS band classes. They are expected to visit FHS on Dec. 17 from ~9:30 -11:30.

Nominations are still open for the Secretarial position and VP of Logistics with spots for fundraiser chairs as well.

Minutes Approval: The October Minutes were presented by Toni Ballard; approved by Trace Jenkins and seconded by Susan Bean.

Treasurer's Report: Mr. Jenkins presented the October Treasurer's Report. PNC has been chosen for our new banking institution. There was an issue with a late IRS statement. That is being reviewed by Mr. Jenkins. The report was approved by Hershel Holiday and seconded by Nancy Daleuski.

VP of Operations Report: Susan Bean has been working on a evaluation design for the scholarship award. We are waiting to be informed of where and when we can remove the old band uniforms. We will need to keep the pants for Winter Indoor Drumline however.

VP of Logistics Report: The citrus truck should arrive from Florida about 3PM on November 25th. Help is needed to unload, sort and distribute. The Poinsettia Sale will run through November 25th.

Seniors are encouraged to fundraise if not for Winter Indoor fees but also as a contribution to the band.

Mr. Galway's Report: Mr. Galway along with Ms. McPherson are working on the Winter Indoor Drumline and Colorguard budgets.

Try outs will be before and after T'day break. FHS does plan on traveling to Dayton for competition.

Further details on this winter season will be revealed at the December Booster Meeting.

As a Board we may need to reconvene for a fundraising meeting. TBD

New marching band uniforms are out for bid. The design is looking great.

December 12 is the Winter Holiday Concert.

Closing Remarks: The next meeting will be held in the band room on Monday December 9, 2013 at 7PM. A new Board will be elected.

Respectfully Submitted by Toni Ballard, Secretary
